

Centre for Family Research

Directions

If you are arriving by train it is best to take a taxi to the Centre for Family Research (CFR). Ask the driver to drop you at the archway in Free School Lane.

If you are arriving on foot

1. To get to us you need to make your way to Bene't Street, it runs up the side of the Arts Theatre, by the market place.
2. Walk up Bene't Street, and half way, on the left, is Free School Lane. It is opposite the shop 'Cambridge Contemporary Crafts'.
3. Walk up Free School Lane (about 100 yards) until you see a stone archway on your left (you know it's the right one because it has a red post box in the wall). Walk into the archway and you will see a set of stairs leading to a heavy wooden door on your left.
4. Go through the door and up the main staircase and we are on the second floor. Once you reach the second floor you will see a door for the Centre for Family Research. Go through this door (it is always open) and straight ahead of you, you will see another door labelled 'Centre for Family Research', go through this (again it is always open) and you will find yourself in the Centre. Reception is the second door on the right, Room 612.
