

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE,

CENTRE FOR FAMILY RESEARCH

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS 1966-2016

Centre for Family Research, University of Cambridge 50th Anniversary Celebration

3.00pm–3.45pm, Lubbock Room

Afternoon tea

4.00pm–4.15pm, Peterhouse Theatre

Welcome by Roger Mosey, Chair of the Centre for Family Research Management Committee and Professor Susan Golombok, Director of the Centre for Family Research

4.15pm–4.50pm

'Families, film, and fun', introduced by Professor Claire Hughes, Deputy Director of the Centre for Family Research

4.50pm–5.00pm

Short break

5.00pm–5.45pm

'Half of Me', a new play by Satinder Chohan, introduced by Fin Kennedy, Artistic Director, Tamasha Theatre Company, and performed by actors from Generation Arts, London

5.45pm–6.00pm

Short break

6.00pm–7.00pm

Keynote lecture by Professor Sir Michael Rutter, 'How have scientific findings changed our thinking about families and children over the last 50 years?'; chaired by Professor Sir Leszek Borysiewicz, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cambridge

7.00pm–7.30pm, Combination Room

Drinks

7:45pm

Everyone seated in Dining Hall

7.45pm–8.00pm, Dining Hall

'The Early Days of the Centre for Family Research', by Professor Martin Richards, Centre for Family Research

8.00pm–9.30pm

Dinner

9.30pm–10.00pm

Musical Finale

The 50th Anniversary of the Centre for Family Research

Peterhouse College, Cambridge

Thursday 6th October 2016

Illustrations by Karin Eklund Copyright © 2016